TROUSERS FOR SOLDIERS.

THEY WILL BE OF WHITE DUCK AND ARE FOR PARADE DUTY.

Survey of Regimental Property Has Been Ordered by the Adjutant General Preparatory to Ordering New Uniforms-Encampment Talk.

White duck trousers, well creased and starched, will grace the underpinning of the boys of the Third regiment for parade duty during the hot season. This much was decided at the meeting of officers at the armory last night, Colonel Simonds had a sample pair displayed on the table in the headquarters office, and they looked so stunning that all of the field, line and staff present expressed the liveliest approval. It will take some 400 of the garments to supply the demand, and the effect will be dazzling on the good people of this city, who have always been accustomed to see file after flie of blue legs marching under the helmets of the Third.

The matter of completing the summer uniform with white helmets was disuniform with white helmets was discussed at some length, but no decision was reached. There was a difference of opinion among the officers on this point, several of them being opposed to any kind of helmet. However, it is probable that the white hat will win in the end, as there is a well grounded belief that the effect will be lessened without them. There was only a fair attendance at the meeting, but there was great interest displayed in the affairs of the regiment

By special order No. 25, series of 1895, By special order No. 25, series of 1895, adjutant general's office, a board of survey is ordered, to consist of Lieutenant Colonel Gross, Captain Kinneard and Captain Tew, to survey and condemn all property charged to the regiment which is not fit for service. The order was issued by Adjutant General Wickham, who was present at the armory, and who will meet with the board this morning and comparison. who will meet with the board this morning and remain in the city until everything is checked up. There has neverbeen a proper survey of regimental property, and the regiment is charged with uniforms, etc., which have long since been worn out. In order that the requisitions for new uniforms may be honored, it is necessary to check up and return the unserviceable and account for lost uniforms.

feturn the unserviceable and account for lost uniforms.

The officers also discussed the ques-tion of a regimental encampment this summer. No decision was reached be-yond the general belief that it is a deyond the general belief that it is a desirable thing, if it is possible to accomplish it. The lack of funds in the department at Jefferson City has seriously crippled the boys in more than one direction, and this camp question is one of them. It was decided to hold over the camp matter until the colonel can look into the feasibility of securing a good location for the camp on favorable terms. If decided upon, the camp will be ordered some time in August. A strong effort will be made to get the boys out in the field together.

Colonel Simonds ordered all company commanders to have their company

Colonel Simonds ordered all company commanders to have their company lockers opened for the inspection of the board of survey, and has also directed them to aid the board in every possible way in settling the affairs of the regiment. The fact that no proper inspection has ever been made has kept the books of the national war department filled with tens of property issued to filled with items of property issued to Missouri which has ceased to exist. There is no way for the state officers to condemn the goods, but they must make affidavits and recommendations, in order that the regulations of the war de partment may be complied with and new uniforms and equipments furnished to the state. General Moon attended the meeting with General Wickham, but did not participate in any of the proceedings.

FAIRMOUNT PARK.

The Management Has Arranged for Excellent Mid-Week Attractions.

The management of Fairmount Park is spairing no pains this summer to furnish its patrons with first-class entertainment. It is especially desirous to make the park pleasant in the afternoon for women and children. To this end the Third Regiment orchestra of eight pieces will give a concert on the piaza of the cafe on each Thursday afternoon, and on each Satur-Thursday afternoon, and on each Saturday afternoon the fine floor of the dancing payillon will be thrown open to the women and children free. The full orchestra will be in attendance and Professor Reinholdt will take personal charge of the dancing. This is bound to be a popular feature.

Commercial Club last evening and the session was a short one. President Fuller announced that the an-nual convention of funeral directors of the state was to be held in the city on the 14th, 15th and the 16th of the presen month, and, inasmuch as many of the members were also merchants in their homes, it was desired that the club tender to the delegates during their stay in the sity an informal reception. The date for it was fixed on Tuesday evening of the lath, and the entertainment committee of the club was instructed to make the prop-lath, and the entertainment committee of the club was instructed to make the proper arrangements.

An appeal for assistance for the storm sufferers at Halstead, Kas., was read and in the discussion that followed it was shown that during the past winter the club had given awaw almost £5,000 for charity and its fund for the purpose was quite exhausted.

Secretary Clendening reported that Commissioner Vanlandingham had completed all the arrangements for the proposed summer excursion of the business men through Colorado and was to have reported at the meeting but was called to Chicago and the report would have to be deferred until the next meeting. He said over forty persons had declared their intention to make the trip, and all the information concerning it and all matters pertaining to it would be presented by the commissioner at the coming meeting. It was desired that at least seventy-five people should be in the party that made the trip.

Concerning the Palaseum, President Fuller announced that the committee was soon to have a meeting with Mr. Stillwell and it was expected that that at that time there would be a plan defined for the completion of the company and matters put in such shape that work on the organization of the company could proceed. The enterprise, he declared, was by no means dead.

After announcements concerning the Excelsior Springs excursion this morning under the auspices of the club, the meeting adjourned.

Shortly after the police received the description of the missing girl, a young we-man was arrested in Harlem by Officer Vincent. She was dressed in a very dirty suit of boy's clothes. The police supposed they had recovered the missing girl, but upon reaching the station she proved to be Louisa Arrata, a girl living at 528 Cherry street. Her parents were notified and took her home. The girl stated that she was not trying to run away, but had adopted the male attire simply to have a good time. The police have not yet found the other missing girl.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY.

COMPTROLLER CLAIMS THE RIGHT TO CALL COMMITTEE MEETING.

Mayor Davis Holds That the Comptroller Has No Voice in the Apportionment of Funds Except to Produce Figures.

office in Comptroller Shannon's office yes-erday. Only two of the six members of the Joint committee of the two houses appeared, and nothing was done with the annual apportionment. Aldermen Huttig and Morgan, of the upper house, were the only members of either committee to show up when the time fixed in the notice sent out by Mr. Shannon arrived. The notice ent to Mayor Davis from the same officer did not reach him in time. The mayor had gone to St. Joseph before the card reached his office. The two members of the commit-tee who were present agreed upon Thurslay at 2 o'clock in the afternoon as th ime for the next meeting to be held in Mr. Shannon's office. The members from the ower house are Councilmen Brown, Craig day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon as the time for the next meeting to be held in Mr. Shannon's office. The members from the lower house are Councilmen Brown, Craig and Obson.

A conflict of authority has arisen between the parties to the business. The members of the lower house committee, with Aiderman Morgan in addition, met in the comptroller's office last Saturday and taked over the apportionment, without having previously consulted the computoller. Mr. Shannon holds that he is the only person who can call the committee, and he resented this unadvised meeting. He issued his call for yesterday, and the lower house members remained away.

Meanwhile, just before the mayor departed for St. Joseph, he left orders with Private Secretary Hummer to call the committee together to act on the apportionment, at Il o'clock Thursday morning. The mayor claims that under the charter he is the proper person to call the meeting, and that the comptroller has nothing to do with the matter but to show his books with the estimated revenue and the estimates flied with him by the heads of departments. Then the two committees, with the consent of the mayor, will make the apportionment and prepare the ordinance, whether or not the comptroller approves. Mr. Shannon claims the right to call the meeting and approve the apportionment.

The notices sent out by Mayor Davis are based on section 2 of article 3 of the charter, which contains the following language: "Within the first month of the shall, by ordinance, as far as practicable, make all necessary apportionments of the evenue to be raised for such year to the expenses of the several departments, and for all public works, under proper headings, and for such other objects as it may be necessary to provide for.

As no mention of the comptroller in connection with any apportionment is made in this section, the mayor and lower house members of the committee had objects as it may be necessary to provide for.

As no mention of the comptroller to call the meeting, and Mr. Shannon now claims in a conflict over items in the apportionment, which will probably get into the council.

No trouble is expected over the estimates for the regular departments. The necessity for providing liberally for these is recognized by all the members of the committees. There will, it is said, be no double ordinance, as neither house has a majority of the committee, and whatever ordinance is introduced will be sent into the budget with a majority of the committee. The fact that the apportionment must be made before May 15 will prevent any unnecessary delay.

But there will probably be some trouble over the extras, such as the workhouse and hospital and O. K. creek funds. Alderman Morgan is the advocate of the former, and Councilman Olson is back of the latter. At the neeting last Saturday, Mr. Morgan practically agreed to the apportionment of $60,000 for the O. K. creek sawer, and on the other hand the lower house members agreed to the advance asked for for the hospital and workhouse.

The Kansas City Day Nursery.

The Kansas City Day Nursery.

The Day Nursery work, which has been carried on with so good a degree of success, at 412 East Fourteenth street, passed into the hands of a new organization April 15. Although the organization is new, its members have been the most active in building up the work. The institution will be known hereafter as the Kansas City Day Nursery. The following ladies have been elected for the ensuing year:

Airs, Hugh Miller, president; Mrs. Essele Chadbourne, secretary; Mrs. C. H. Beattle, treasurer: Mrs. M. T. Runnels, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. A. Collins, auditor; Mrs. Mills, who president if the corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. A. Collins, auditor; Mrs. Minule McCheyne, matron.

The association held its diest monthly meeting May 1 at which standing committees were appointed and now plans of work laid out. The average daily attendance at the nursery is about twenty-three. The workers having it in charge wish it distinctly understood that the association is strictly non-sectarian. They have undertaken this enterprise with the intention of making it permanent and also of establishing branch nurseries in different parts of the city, where they are so much needed. This howerey, not until financial support will warrant it. The members of the association wish to tender most hearty thanks to all who have assisted them in the past, by their donations, to build up this work, and also to those who have contributed so generously in the recent refurnishing of the house.

On Monday night, surrounded by her parents, brothers and sisters, Miss Lillian D. Wollman breathed her last. Miss Wollman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wollman of 720 West Eleventh street. She was born at Leavenworth, Kas. Aport 1875, and was educated in the public schools there, and in this city. She was a young lady of superior intellect and most gentle disposition. Her last illness was brief and she died as she had lived, gently, calm and serene. No young lady in the city had a larger circle of friends, to whom, as well as to her sorrowing family, her death comes as a great blow. The funeral services will be conducted by Rabbi Schulman at 2 o'clock to-day from the family residence, at 720 West Eleventh street.

The season at Troost park is fairly or ow and crowds are thronging to this popular resort every day and evening. With this week the summer concert and dancing season was inaugurated, offering a special attraction to visitors. Every Monday, Wesinesslay and Friday evenings there is denoting at the park and on Tues-day, Thursday and Saturday evenings there are special concerts by Professor Lenge's full military band. These are in addition to the regular Sunday concerts at which specially selected programmes are rendered. There was a tremendous crowd at Troost last Sunday, drawn by same syndicate of capitalists which took an option upon them three months ago. The syndicate is composed of Brewster, Cobb & Esterbrook: R. L. Day & Co. and Kidder, Peabody & Co., of New York, and the Illinois Trust Company, of Chicago. The bonds are to run for twenty years and to bear 4½ per cent interest, payable in gold.

The sale was negotiated by Messrs. J. S. Chick and J. F. Richards, financial agents of the city in the water works matter. While the deal made by them and Mr. S. B. Armour, another of the city's financial agents, three months ago was regarded as a sale, it was in reality an option, which expired upon April 38. The men who represented the city in the recent sale, when asked concerning it, declined to be interviewed. Fultz, Jr., of Wellington, Kas-rrived in the city last night, and will Lew Erhardt, one of St. Joseph's crack wing shots, was in the city yesterday on his way to attend the annual shoot of the tun club of that place.

"I find the Royal Baking Powder su perior to all the others in ever-respect. It is entirely free from al adulteration and unwholesome impurity and in baking it gives off a greater volum-of leavening gas than any other powder "WALTER S. HAINES, M. D.," Chemist to the Chicago Board of Health.

Warned a Robber and Then Chased Him-Warned a Robber and Then Chased Him-Early yesterday morning Detective Mike Cochran, of the Kanass City Detective Bureau, discovered a man in the act of drilling the safe of Jake Florian's saloon at 122 Ninth street. Cochran blew his whistle for assistance and then gave chase to the desing robber. A police officer joined in the chase and fired several shots at the man. After running several blocks the robber dodged the officers, and a sareful search falled to locate him. At the saloon a brace and five bits and a battle of powder were found.
